

EBTA (European Brief Therapy Association) Conference 2009

4-6 September 2009, Helsinki, Finland

Join us in Helsinki for a conference with a difference:
spend one day exploring solution focus outside traditional conference environments!

A rich selection of topics, with more to come...

- Elam Nunnally on couples therapy
- Allan Wade on domestic violence
- Manfred Vogt on working with children
- Sue Young on bullying in schools
- John Wheeler on child protection
- Jaakko Seikkula on dialogue
- Tom Erik Arnkil on utilizing networks
- Agneta Castenberg on Short Cut Coaching
- Ben Furman on inspiration
- Michael Hjerth on brain research
- Janet Bavelas, Peter DeJong and Harry Korman on micro-analysis
- Mark Beyebach on process research
- Ferdinand Wolf on utilizing the past
- Tomasz Switek on turning problems into solutions
- Taina Laane on feelings as a motor for change
- Plamen Panayotov on new tools
- Veli-Matti Virtanen on experiential learning
- Marianne Plouvier on Qigong
- Matti Salo on mindfulness
- Tapio Malinen & Riitta Malkamäki on therapy as a spiritual practice

PLUS...

- experiential learning as the basis for programming
- lots of opportunities for sharing and networking

And ...

- an official reception at City Hall
- a sparkling Saturday evening party, with music such as you never heard before ...

We look forward to having you with us!

The Imagine conference is organized by European Brief Therapy Association (EBTA), Helsinki University Palmenia Centre for Continuing Education, Ratkes ry (The Finnish Association for Solution Oriented Ideas) and TaitoBa.

So, log on to the conference website to find out more and register:

www.ebta2009.com